

Head of Access Services, Law Library, Loyola University Chicago

---

Loyola University Chicago is accepting applications for an experienced librarian to assume the position of Head of Access Services. The Head oversees all aspects of access to the law library's space and collections, both print and electronic. To be considered, applicants must hold an MLS degree from an ALA accredited institution; at least five years of academic library experience; and at least two years of supervisory experience. Review of applications will begin December 9.

For complete information and to apply, go to www.careers.luc.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=54506.

Loyola University is an equal opportunity educator/employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.