

Mississippi

---

2007 Report and 2009-10 Update by Stacey Rowland, University of Mississippi Law Library

|   |  |
|---|--|
| OFFICIAL STATUSXNo change since the 2007 report | AUTHENTICATIONXNo change since the 2007 report |
|---|--|

Mississippi online legal resources are not official.
Mississippi does not certify as official and authentic its online versions of the state session laws, statutes, court opinions, or administrative regulations. The state does not have a complete online code for all administrative agencies. No administrative register is available.

Mississippi is not addressing the authentication of online legal resources.
The goal of many state agencies is to have more resources available online, although authentication was not a stated priority.

Has the state eliminated the print publication of any of these titles in favor of online only since the 2007 report? The state of Mississippi has not eliminated the print publication of its state administrative codes and registers, state statutes and session laws or the state high and intermediate appellate court opinions.

Has the state enacted legislation guaranteeing the public's permanent access to state online government information since the 2007 report? No, the state of Mississippi has not enacted legislation guaranteeing the public's permanent access to state online government information.

Have courts in your state adopted a medium neutral citation system since the 2007 report? Mississippi adopted a medium neutral citation system prior to 2007.

Have there been any other significant changes to the 2007 state summary? No, the information submitted for Mississippi in 2007 has remained unchanged for the 2009 update.