

Minnesota Association of Law Libraries 2009 MALL Legal Research Institute

The Minnesota Association of Law Libraries is presenting a nine part Institute to provide continuing education in legal research methodology using both print and electronic resources. The nine sessions will cover a variety of topics and will include the full spectrum of primary and secondary legal resources. The Institute will provide an overview of efficient and ethical techniques for finding and effectively using legal resources.

These weekly sessions will be held on Tuesday evenings (except April 7) from 6:30 to 8:45 p.m. in Room 103, Hamline University School of Law, 1536 Hewitt Avenue, St. Paul, MN. Parking is permitted on campus at no extra charge in the visitor parking lot off Hewitt Avenue.

16 CLE credits have been requested.
The March 3rd session will not be covered by CLE.
