

Southern California Association of Law Libraries 2010 Scholarship Application

PURPOSE: The purpose of the Southern California Association of Law Libraries (SCALL) Scholarship is to reward current library school students who hold promise of future involvement in the law library profession. The amount of each scholarship award varies up to $1,000; the number of awards granted each year may vary depending on current funding of the scholarship committee.

QUALIFICATIONS: The applicant must:

1. Demonstrate a sincere interest in law librarianship.
2. Live in Southern California* and be a currently enrolled graduate student in either the UCLA Department of Information Studies or a distance library school program.
3. Please note: applicants who received a SCALL scholarship in the past will not get top priority.

REQUIREMENTS: Along with this application form, the applicant must submit:

1. Two letters of recommendation from an instructor or employer that comment upon the applicant's potential for contribution to the field of law librarianship;
2. A short essay in which the applicant describes his/her interest in law librarianship and how s/he hopes to contribute to the profession; and
3. A resume indicating educational background and employment history.

DEADLINE: Applications and supporting materials must be received by February 22, 2010. Applicants will be notified of the committee's decision by March 8, 2010.
