

Do you anticipate having some free time while you are attending the 2004 SEAALL Annual Meeting in Richmond this March (less than 2 months away!)? Perhaps you'd like to attend a concert or visit a museum or go to the theater on Thursday after the reception or Saturday evening. You will not be at a loss for entertainment opportunities. Richmond is home to theater, opera and dance companies, as well as a symphony orchestra. Many have events and concerts scheduled during the week-end of the meeting. Additionally, you will be 90 minutes from the amazing variety of entertainment and cultural activities in Washington, DC or Hampton Roads.

If you want to check out the variety of events, the following links will assist you :

At the Richmond Times-Dispatch website (<http://www.timesdispatch.com>) check out the Entertainment and Flair links under the Lifestyle heading on the left side of the home page.

For a comprehensive listing of theater, dance, local bands, even karaoke, go to Richmond.com. Paste the following link into your browser and pull up a calendar of events currently scheduled for the week-end of the annual meeting:

<http://www.richmond.com/calendar/calendarResults.cfm?type=searchrun&searchstring=&heading=All&month2=3&day2=25&year2=2004&month3=3&day3=28&year3=2004&DATESEARCH=between&calday=01%2F29%2F2004&Search=Search>

The Arts and Entertainment page at Richmond.com offers additional information.

For the Washington area, the Washington Post website (<http://www.washingtonpost.com>) is a gold mine of information. Click the Arts & Living or Entertainment links at the top of the page for extensive listings of entertaining opportunities. In the Entertainment guide you can search by date . The beginning of the list features ongoing events. Events scheduled only for the day chosen are found at the end of the list.

The best listing of activities in the Hampton Roads area can be found at (<http://www.hamptonroads.com/fun>).

Whatever your interests and time, you will find an event or activity that suits.