Goals and Objectives for Year:

Having a representative to the Depository Library Council and the Federal Depository Library Program Conference supports two of the three initiatives highlighted in the AALL 2005-2010 Strategic Directions: Leadership and Advocacy. To further the goals of AALL in these two areas, the AALL Representative to the Depository Library Council and the Federal Depository Library Program Conference has the following objectives:

- (1) Attend and participate as appropriate in two Federal Depository Library Program Conferences: (a) Fall 2007 – October 15-17, 2007, Arlington, Virginia; (b) Spring 2008 – March 30 – April 2, 2007, location TBA.
- (2) Collaborate with the AALL Washington Affairs Office to take any necessary follow-up steps from the conferences and to address other Government Printing Office and FDLP issues between the conferences.
- (3) File regular reports to the Board and AALL Special Interest Sections about any issues/actions taken by the Depository Library Council and/or Government Printing Office that might affect law libraries and law librarians.
- (4) Participate as requested and as appropriate in advocacy actions taken by the Washington Affairs Office, the Government Relations Committee and other AALL entities.
- (5) Prepare annual report about representative's activities during the year.

Liaison Function with Other Committees or Special Interest Sections:

- (1) Government Documents Special Interest Section
- (2) Government Relations Committee
- (3) Access to Electronic Legal Information Committee
- (4) Washington Affairs Office
- (5) Others as requested

Resources:

(1) Financial resources needed are those associated with attendance at the two Depository Library Council meetings each year.

(2) Deliberations and discussions with the AALL Associate Washington Affairs Representative
