SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

LEXISNEXIS/JOHN R. JOHNSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Established in 1994 with a $100,000 contribution from LexisNexis, this first AALL endowed scholarship honors the memory of John R. Johnson. Mr. Johnson, who died in January 1994, was director of the law librarian segment of LexisNexis and a longtime law library supporter. He believed that librarians are "the only ones who know how real users use real information." Optimistic about the role of librarians in the future, Mr. Johnson believed that law librarians would assume even greater responsibility in the expanding electronic-networked environment.

AALL & THOMSON WEST/GEORGE A. STRAIT MINORITY SCHOLARSHIP

The George A. Strait Minority Scholarship is awarded to college graduates with law library experience who are members of a minority group and are degree candidates in accredited library or law schools. Established in 2001 by AALL and with a $150,000 contribution from Thomson West, the minority scholarship is awarded annually to minority students who best embody the career goals of the law librarian profession. George A. Strait (1914-1989) was an outstanding law librarian and longtime AALL member. In recognition of his career achievements, Mr. Strait was awarded the Marian Gould Gallagher Distinguished Service Award in 1989. In 1990 the AALL Executive Board made the minority stipend a permanent part of the Association's scholarship program and named it in his honor.
