Whether you are looking for employment or have an open position to fill, check out the AALL Career Center (www.aallnet.org/careers). Designed specifically for law libraries and legal information professionals, the AALL Career Center offers members and the profession at large a highly-targeted resource for online recruitment. New features and functionality make posting jobs and resumes simple and streamline the entire application process. Resume posting is free for AALL members, and you can even create a Job Agent to e-mail personalized search results directly to your inbox.

New Book Reviews Posted on AALL Spectrum Blog

Wondering whether you should buy that shiny new hardcover? The AALL Spectrum Blog (<http://aallspectrum.wordpress.com>) features book reviews from your fellow law librarians, making it the best place to find a trusted perspective on new titles. Current and upcoming reviews include:

The Representation of Business in English Literature, by Arthur Pollard (The Liberty Fund)

International Development Law: Rule of Law, Human Rights, and Global Finance, by Rumu Sarkar (Oxford University Press)

Derivatives: Legal Practices and Strategies, by Robert D. Aicher (Aspen Publishing)

Contact Mark Estes at mark.estes@acgov.org if you'd like to be a reviewer for the AALL Spectrum blog.
