2009 AALL/Wolters Kluwer Law & Business Grants Fund Two Research Projects

The AALL Research Committee is pleased to announce that the 2009 AALL/Wolters Kluwer Law & Business Grant Program has funded two research grants.

Susan Nevelow Mart, faculty services librarian at the University of California Hastings College of Law Library, was awarded $2,225 for her project, "The Effects of Automation on the Relevance of Citator and Digest Results in Lexis and Westlaw."

Stacy Bowers, outreach and access services librarian at the University of Denver Sturm College of Law Westminster Law Library, was awarded $2,775 for her project, "Reintroducing the Value of Law Librarians to Public Librarians through the Identification and Use of Emerging Technologies and Resources."

The AALL/Wolters Kluwer Law & Business Grant Program was first established in 1996 with a generous contribution of $50,000 to sponsor research that will have a practical impact on the law library profession and inspire products and changes in the marketplace.

The AALL Research Agenda offers suggestions for possible research projects that cover a wide segment of professional interest, including the profession of law librarianship, law library patrons, law library services, legal research and bibliography, legal information resources, and law library facilities. The committee will consider all applications and research projects, whether on the agenda or not.
