

Top 10 Benefits of Continuing Education

by Sharon Blackburn and Stephen Good

Sharon Blackburn (sharon.blackburn@ttu.edu) is head of reference and instruction and Stephen Good (stephen.good@ttu.edu) is the electronic services librarian at Texas Tech University School of Law Library in Lubbock, Texas.

- 10 Gives me some place else to sleep besides my desk.
- 9 I get to buy lottery tickets in other states.
- 8 Continuing education binders look mighty impressive on my office shelves.
- 7 I take great satisfaction in knowing that my sensible shoes are more sensible than anyone else's sensible shoes.
- 6 Add another entry on the already incredibly impressive resume ... what more could you ask for?
- 5 Get to keep my bar membership one more year.
- 4 Eat 14,000 calories worth of sugar and chocolate as long as I nod politely and pretend to pay attention.
- 3 Get Michael Gorman to autograph my copy of AACR2.
- 2 I practice my telepathy skills by making the speaker commit four career-threatening Freudian slips in less than one hour.
- 1 I get paid to listen to stuff I talk about all the time anyway.