

Part I: State Statutes

Directions: Use the General Index to West's Arizona Revised Statutes Annotated to find the state statute that makes animal cruelty a crime.

1. What index term(s) did you use to find the statutory section?

Animals – cruelty to animals

2. What is the citation, as it appears in the index, for the statutory section that addresses cruelty to animals?

13-2910

3. If an annual pocket part is available for your bound volume, through what legislative session(s) and year(s) does the annual pocket part update the bound volume of the code?

2006 pocket part: through the 2d Regular Session of the 47th Legislature

4. If an annual pocket part is available for your bound volume, is there any additional information for your statutory section in the pocket part? Has the statute been amended or are there any additional annotations for your statutory section?

Yes—2002 amendment and additional annotations

5. Are there any legislative service pamphlets that update the annual pocket parts? If so, through what legislative session(s) and year(s) does the most recent legislative service pamphlet update the annual pocket parts?

2006; No. 6

6. In the most recent legislative service pamphlet, look at the table in the back of the pamphlet entitled “Table 1 – Cumulative – Arizona Revised Statutes, Proposed Constitutional Amendments and Session Laws”. This table indicates if a statutory section has been amended or repealed by recent legislation. Has your statutory section been affected in any way by recent legislation? If so, explain.

No

7. Return to the statutory section in the bound volume. Look at the historical source note (usually enclosed in parentheses) at the end of the section. The historical source note refers to the session laws for your statutory section.

a. In what year was statutory section 13-2910 originally enacted (added)?

Added by Laws 1977

b. Has this statutory section been amended? If so, provide the dates for the three most recent amendments.

2002, 2000, 1999

8. Provide the Bluebook citation for this statutory section. (consult Bluebook T.1 and Rule 12.3.2 when composing the citation)

Ariz. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 13-2910 (West Supp. 2005).

Part II: Court Rules

Directions: Use the Index to the Arizona Rules of Civil Procedure (p. 201) in West's Arizona Rules of Court – State - 2007 to find the rule discussing the length of time a party has to file a motion for a new trial after entry of the judgment.

1. What index term(s) did you use to find the court rule?

Trial—New Trial—Time, motion for new trial (Index p. 232)

2. What is the rule number for this court rule?

Civ Rule 59(d)

3. How long does a party have to file a motion for a new trial after entry of the judgment?

Not later than 15 days (see p. 140)