

Race and the law Road map for paper research-February 2009

Books

Pass around - Race, law, and American history, 1700-1990. An eleven-volume anthology of scholarly articles KF 4757 .R33 1992 explain students may find a topic from an article in the multi volume set.

Pass around -From Jim Crow to Civil rights- this resource can provide you with information about a case you would like to write about.

Pass around- Landmark briefs and arguments of the Supreme Court of the United States, Constitutional law Unclassified Collection- explain how this resource will provide you with all the briefs and arguments for hot topic supreme court cases.

Hein online

Point out all libraries – go to law journal library- advanced search

Run search “mandatory school busing”

Point out text and citing feature – and search within feature

Worldcat

Run search for “school busing”

Select -Swann's way: the school busing case and the Supreme Court

Point out the resources is in our library

Explain subject headings to the students and how they can be used to gather more resources – click on subject heading and show how all the resources are now on point for those resources – copy subject heading

Tomcat

Paste subject heading in our catalog and run search for what is available in our library