

Newsletter Committee Report

2006-2007 was a quiet year compared to last year when I made a number of significant changes to the “look and feel” of the newsletter. I edited three issues of SCCLL News this year, with an average length of 30 pages. I was pleased to publish a number of substantive articles, such as “Joachim Bermudez: Early New Orleans Jurist” by Georgia Chadwick (v. 33, n. 2) and a series of related articles by Jacqueline Cantwell: “Nature vs. Nimmer: Access to Scientific Research Sources for Judges” (v. 33, n. 1) and “The Library: Information Gatekeeper or Intermediary?”.

Our members look to the newsletter to stay up-to-date on what is happening in SCCLL libraries around the country. This year, we featured stories about new education websites, such as “New Tutorial on Connecticut’s Legislative Process” by Steve Mirsky (v. 33, n. 2), and member libraries who were participating in cutting-edge technology projects, for example “Maryland State Law Library Involved in Historic Maryland High Court Webcast” by Rudolf B. Lamy (v. 33, n. 1).

Thank you to the SCCLL members who have contributed stories. I look forward to editing many new and exciting articles next year!
