Fred Baum, Director of Library Services at the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, has issued an invitation to all members of SCCLL to attend a reception on Monday, July 8, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The House of the Association, where the party, will be held, is at 42 W. 44th Street, within easy walking distance of the headquarters Hilton Hotel.

Chairperson's Column

I look forward to seeing a big crowd of our members in New York! It will indeed be a special year. In addition to our regular Sunday morning program/business meeting on July 7, SCCLL members have been invited to a reception at the House of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York on Monday, July 8, from 5:30-7:30 p.m. (42 West 44th Street, a short walk from the Hilton). Special thanks to Library Director Fred Baum for his hospitality. SCCLL is also sponsoring a part of the regular AALL program this year on Wednesday, July 10, from 2:30-4:30 p.m. This program, entitled "Fools Rush In . . . : Outreach Services in Publicly Funded Law Libraries," was put together by SCCLL member Beth Peterson of the Minnesota State Law Library. Program participants include fellow SCCLL members Marvin Anderson, Carol Billings, Larry Chesseman and Mike Miller.

The State, Court and County Law Libraries SIS had a productive year. It was a year marked by renewed efforts on the part of many of our members to stimulate and share ideas for improved management of services and staff. In keeping with this emphasis, our Program Chair, Anita Shew, has designed a program with a practical, managerial focus: "Designing the Annual Report." The program, which is described elsewhere in the newsletter, will feature four of our members who have found the annual report to be a valuable vehicle for capsulizing performance and providing a framework for long range planning. It should appeal to our members regardless of the size of their libraries or their positions therein.

Our Sunday program/business meeting will begin at 8:30 a.m. with the Hilton's special Continental breakfast, including coffee, juice, miniature Danish, muffins and breakfast rolls. The program will run from 9:15 until 11:15 a.m., followed by the business meeting. The agenda for the business meeting will include:

Consideration of revised standards for both county law libraries and appellate court libraries. The proposed revisions are included in this newsletter. These two committees, under the able leadership of David Badertscher and Barbara Golden, have really been active this year.

Consideration of Chair-elect Duncan Webb's space planning survey.

Review of IOLTA funding possibilities for law libraries (state programs for allocating Interest on Lawyers Trust Accounts)

Election of officers (See the report of the Nominating Committee.)

If you would like to add an item to the agenda, please notify me in writing prior to June 6.

Our SIS now has almost 300 members. Approximately 15% of you are active in committee work. There is an opportunity for more of you to participate in section activities. Please fill out the committee preference form included in the newsletter and become more involved. Feel free to suggest special committees or projects on this form if you have a concern that is not being met by our present organizational structure.

I want to express my appreciation to the membership for all the cooperation and assistance I have received this year and especially to my fellow officers, committee chairs and newsletter editor Carol Billings. I look forward to greeting all of you in New York.

Chairperson

A Note From the Editor

All of the compliments that were heard following the release of the last issue of the NEWSLETTER belong to our chairperson, Anne Grande. Anne modestly allowed everyone to assume that this editor was responsible for the production of that excellent issue, when in fact I was only a contributor. Anne herself did the work and deserves to be thrown quite a few bouquets.
